Types of nouns

Stinky has eaten Kurt's homework! Can you quickly help Kurt redo it?

Circle all the nouns in the following passage. Then sort them into the correct boxes.

That night Muck could not sleep at all. The little monster didn't even dare close his eyes. At any moment George could wake up and aim that terrifying, bright spotlight right onto Muck where he was crouched behind a pair of shoes in the open cupboard. Things had been like this since George started reading Monster Myths, a collection of stories that treats all monsters as vicious villains and twists a history of hatred around to blame monsters of doing things to people that people really do to monsters!
